Story of Sarah Bryan(t), wife of Samuel Bailey from Halifax, Va.

The following story was found in the McCubbin records in the Rowan County, NC Library, in the N. C. Genealogy room

A very interesting romance could be made of the life of Samuel Bailey. As told me by one of his descendants by his first wife,-- name withheld by request -- who is not only highly educated but strictly conscientious. Samuel Bailey of Halifax, Va. went to Philadelphia as a nineteen year old boy, and met Sarah Bryan-- (or Bryant--) somewhat younger still, and they -- feeling that life would be more delightful if spent with each other -- had the ceremony performed and notified his parents. The springtime of their lives must have fled, for they considered the marriage a most injudicious proceeding and disinherited the couple. So, hand in hand with love and God's blessing, our happy lovers tripped their way to N.C. by "Walker's Express". Their home, a pine log hut, may or may not have shielded their bodies from the shrill north winds, but it at least preserved them until the arrival, on horseback, of her brother with a little bag of gold-- presumably her portion of her father's estate as he had gone to rest.

With this little nest egg, their fortune was made and the comforts of life were theirs. His parents may have regretted their disloyalty to flesh and blood, at any rate they came to share his affluence and remained until both were prematurely removed by death-- he by an untimely attack of pneumonia at the age of 110 years and she died, slightly younger, upon hearing that he was no more. Both were interred at the same time-- probably in the same grave-- in the old Dutchman's Creek Church yard a few miles from Mocksville, Davie Co., N.C.

Sarah was a brave woman-- facing frontier life with only Cupid as a guarantor would find little favor with maidens of our day-- but she again showed her mettle during the Revolutionary War. Samuel being absent upon one of his many tours-- he hauled merchandise from Philadelphia and elsewhere for the merchants in N.C.-- two armed strangers arrived at her home and demanded arms and money. Very suavely she asked them to have breakfast with her and went out to give the extra orders for her guests. Quite probably too, this breakfast was more tempting than was usual during this unsettled period-- at any rate, they stacked their arms against the wall and fell to. Being absorbed with the business at hand, they failed to notice that some Negro men had tipped close enough to get the guns through the aid of the hostess, and we can imagine their chagrin when interrupted by orders of "Right Face". Through the fore-thought of Madame Sarah, these gentlemen finished their conversation-- if not their meal-- in that ladies' smokehouse carefully attended by colored slaves. Later some armed men with sufficient authority escorted the guests to other entertainment, which may have (?) stopped their calls upon defenseless ladies forevermore-- they were Tories.

Notes made, written in long hand, in the 1960's .

Aunt Betty Redwine was Sanford Bailey's sister. Betty married Johnny Redwine, a preacher. Who was Coleman Foster's wife? She was Aunt "Nervy" (Minerva?). She was a "Call". (I think he was a brother to Sallie Foster Bailey, wife of Sanford Bailey).

Grandmother Bailey's ( Emily Foster, wife of Sanford Bailey) mother was a Taylor and married a Foster .

Grandmother Sally Bailey Wyatt (wife of John Noah Wyatt) used to speak of Uncle Nimrod (Bailey).

Grandmother Sally had two cousins Phillip and Mumford Bailey

Martha Anderson, nee Foster, daughter of Coleman Foster and Aunt Nervy Call. Martha had a sister Emma who never married and one named "Nattie" who married a Stafford. She is the grandmother of Florence Stafford. Eliza Sheets, sister of Martha (Anderson) - she married Tom Sheets. William Walker Wyatt gave ea of his childrem either 150 A or the equivalent. He built a house for his dau Mary Martin. She had a dau in show biz of whom she was ashamed.

Sanford Bailey's Bible

This was Sanford Bailey's Book "about the Bible." I wish he had told who his parents were. The first writing says, "Sanford Bailey's Book bought May the 25th AD 1868." And under that is written "Sanford Bailey's Book bought of Rev. George Hunt." The next pages lists Sanford's and Emily (Foster) Children: (That which is in brackets is my addition.)

R. C. Bailey was born July the 20th 1853 [Radford]

L. K. Bailey was born December the 16th, 1855 [Lewis Kerr]

G. F. Bailey was born April the 13th, 1858 [George and (I think) Franklin]

S. A. Bailey was born Sept. the 28th, 1860 [Samuel]

Albert S. Bailey was born Dec. 28th, 1862 [d Nov. 6, 1871]

Sarah E. Bailey was born April the 8th, 1865 [she was known as Sallie Elizabeth- the only girl]

LETTER

This letter was written by Genie Reinhard to John Noah Wyatt, the only child of William Wyatt and Martha Shelton Wyatt. Martha was the second wife of William. The "Mary" that she refers to was a child of William Wyatt and his wife, Susanna Cope Wyatt. After Susannah's death William married a young girl, Martha Shelton, and by her had John Noah Wyatt. Hence, Mary was a half sister to John Noah Wyatt.

August 7, 1938

Dear Uncle John,

My uncle has asked me to write you the news of my grandmother's death, your sister Mary. She died July 27th, it was sad to loose her. Yet she is so much better off. She died very quietly. Was only in bed about ten days. She just seemed to get weaker all the time. And simply slept away. No one is ever ready to give up our loved ones. But she was nearly 98 years, all but a few weeks.

Goodness knows she was a good woman and ready to die. I loved her dearly. She had a good son and daughter-in-law, and had the best of care. Yet as I say all hands are better off. As you would know it is a great care to stay year in and out with anyone. Yet no one complained. But she realized she was a care on her son. But no one wanted to spare her. He buried her beautifully. Wish you could have seen her.

If there are any particulars you care to know write me and I'll be glad to write you. Or if you want to write to her son that she made her home in you may do that. You know his address. I'll give you mine, I wrote a letter to you not long ago for her.

Sincerely, Genie Reinhard

OLD BOOK

I have in my possession an OLD book that belonged to Big Robert Foster. This was a book in which he kept his business transactions. He must have owned a general store and people bought on credit. Purchases made and paid for were in this book. The book is falling apart; the first date I found is 1818. Inside the front cover: Rote by me Robert Foster Senr. He also had a page of births, which I am assuming were births of this slaves. I am listing the names I found. The only way this would benefit a genealogist is just knowing they were alive at the dates on the pages.

Mr. W. C. Taylor
494 W. Kerr Street
Salisbury, NC

Dear Mr. Taylor:

The Rev. Geo. F. Hill turned your letter to him over to me asking that I make a reply. I took the liberty of inserting it in a column I edit for our Society. I am inclosing a clipping of your query.

I suggest that you get in touch with Mr. B. F. Folger, Executive Vice President of the bank of Elkin, P. O. Box 590, as he is a descendent and is tracing the same family. Speaking of President Zachary, there is a Zachariah Taylor's Will recorded in WB 3 of Currituck County in 1815; also a Zachariah mentioned on pages 66 and 95 in New Norfolk County, Va., just over the line of Currituck County in the book: "Cavaliers and Pioneers - Abstracts of Va. Land Patents and Grants 1623 - 1800" by Nell Marion Nugent under the dates of 1637 and 1638. He figured in the Patent of George White. Also there is a Thomas Taylor, clerk of Pasquotank County whose name appears on deeds back in 1751 and 1761. On Dec. 15 1959 James Taylor who resides at Maple in Currituck County is a letter to Mrs. Ervin H. Midgette (now deceased) said "I regret I did not ask my father and preserved it in writing but I have never taken such a turn. As father told me my great-great grandfather came here from the city of Einburgh, Scotland, in the 1790's or early part of the next century. He brought a leather bound almanac which was printed in Cambridge, London in 1663. The Taylor's have preserved it. It rests in the Archives and History, Raleigh. I sent it away after papa died for fear of it getting lost." His father also was a Zachariah Taylor and had a brother Thomas.

One of my gr-grandfathers was a sea captain named Mager Everton. During the Civil War he sank his ship in the deep waters of Little Narrows, near Poplar Branch, Currituck County to save it from the Yankees. He married Elizabeth Taylor, b. 1 Feb 1804, d 24 Feb 1850, dau of Jonathan Taylor, d 1807 and whose will is recorded in the WB 2 of Currituck County-- sons Zachariah, Benjamin, Willoughby, Jonathan; daus Betsy (Elizabeth) Bridget (under age).

Sincerely yours,

Jack Baum, (J.O.Baum.ENDFIELD)

From Janie Martin, retired school teacher from R.J.Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem, and Historian in Davie County, NC.

Pleasant Rowan Martin, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth Deadmon, married Mary Wyatt, dau of Willliam Wyatt and his wife, Susannah Cope:

At one time Pleasant was a merchant in Mocksville, NC. He built the home at 1105 North Main Street, in Mocksville. Trees were cut from Mary's farm, and Elijah F. Martin helped haul the lumber to build the home. Mary was the daughter of Willliam Wyatt, prominant early Davie County citizen. She was one of the 10 charter members of the Mocksville Baptist Church, which was organized in 1864.

A brief explanation about the McCubbin Records, as it was told to me:

Many years ago a Mrs. McCubbin, who was childless, spent her life gathering information about the NC settlers. When she died, all of her records were donated to the Rowan County Library. They are filed, and we find they are a great source of information. Frequently they cannot be verified, but they give us a starting place for research. The following is from a file marked "Stokingier."

 Book 10, Pg 18 Oct. 27 1784 Andrew Stokenger and wife Barbara let Nicholas Reimer -- all of the Rowan County, have 100 acres on Dutch-Buffaloe Creek next to George Henry Berger for 42 pounds. Part of land which the Earl of Granville let Geo. Henry Berger have on July 1762.

The Will of Lewis Stokingier Book 5 Page 6 made while weak in body on Feb. 2, 1806 wife Barbara her choice of household things and stock. The rest to be sold . Parents Andrew and Barbara . Brother Christian (whose son must be educated) all get $10.00 each.

Book 18 Pg 975 Feb. 25 1803 Philbird Wright lets Lewis Stokingier have 20 acres on the Uary on the SW corner of the Old Tract granted the now deceased Richard Wright Sr. for 20 lbs.

1807 May Henry Tarr (a Ger, ad. Of the dec'd Lewis Stokingier's will) lets Peter Sumy of Rowan have for $300 several tracts witnessed by Darr and Wright.

Book 22, pg 118 - 1808 The State grants #2948 at 50 shillings the 100 A to Christian Stuckinger 200 A on Jacobs Creek next Abrham Beanblossom entered 1799.

1809 Christian Stokingier let Martin Beyrer have 50 A on Jacob's Creek next Barbara Smith

Letter from Eva Neel, Boggstown, In-- 46110

Excerpted from a letter dated Nov. 22, 1993: When David A Stockinger came to Ind. there was a man and a woman with him whose names were John and Julia Ann (Brindley) Stockinger. They were approx. 18 years older than David. According to the census they were all from N. Car. I do not know what relation they were to David. I'm hoping they were his parents. All that the history of Orange County, Ind. Says is: "Then came John and David Stockinger." John and David both bought property at the same time in Ind.

I found a Will of a man named Henry Brindley which named Julia Ann Stockinger as his sister, which helped me to learn her maiden name. David named one of his daughters Julia Ann and he named one of them Margaret. Maybe the name Brindley will help. I have also seen it spelled Brindle.

My grandmother was Della Stockinger and her father was James Buchannon "Buck" Stockinger. David was the father of Buck "Buck" Stockinger married Sarah Ellen Wood. Her mother was Sarah Leonard and her father was Martin A. Wood. Both of them were from N.Car.

David was born in 1813 and John and Julia about 1795. Also I wanted to tell you there was a Catherine Stockinger here in Ind. who married John Riley in 1844. At one time there were many Stockingers here in Ind.

TAYLORS AND WYATTS

A Word from Catherine W. Pitts:

I started my search into families in the 1960's. At first I was searching my husband's family, the Pitts family, and, of course, that led me to search my own family tree. I met a lady from Salisbury, named Mrs. W. C. Taylor, and she mailed me info, on post cards, about her search, She used every square eighth of an inch on that post card. Nine of these post cards have survived the 40 or so years since, and I am entering each post card below. This first card was not dated, nor was it cancelled by the Post office. I do not where it fits in with the rest of the cards. Also, do bear in mind that the typewriter that Mrs. Taylor used was apparently old, for the letter "o" was filled in, so you could not distinguish between an "e" and an "o". Later she must have bought a new typewriter, for the letters were clearer. She begins:

We're excited again. Mrs. Swalm sends us a Will from the same Del. Mispillion Hd. John Taylor, 1796, youngest son: George. She says we need a copy of "Calendar of Kent Co. Probate records 1680 - 1800." She gives me the address to or from and the price $12.50.

You do not have one, do you? If not I think I'll order one right away. Then you and I can both use it. No telling what we may be able to discover. I sent her a lot of Wyatt data, all I could find that involved John Wyatt (from early records). I think she probably is from the same family, don't you?

Let me know whether or not you have one of these books so I can rush my order in. That way we'll probably get all there is about our Wyatts and Taylors all the way back to the emigrant.

I'm just getting over Flu. Hope you have escaped. Love,
Mrs. W. C. Taylor
406 W. Kerr St.

(This card postmarked Dec. 5, 1962)

Thank you for the material. The file make me believe the Taylors and Wyatts came here from Currituck or Norfolk together just after the Rev. Unity Was the sister of your Wm. See Bk. D. P. 268 for will of Wm.Sr., Cornelius was older bro. Some of the Taylors and Wyatts settled in S. Rowan and Davidson, others in Fork. Records show that the Taylors, Wyatts, Osborns, etc. continued to move West to Wilkes, Ashe, and Tenn. John and Nathan Wyatt must have settled in South Rowan, Aaron and Wm. in forks. "Colonial Surry Co. Va." a new book by Boddie tells of a Wyatt gov. of Va. And others; the names repeat themselves in Currituck records ditto, Taylors. Many ties show connection between old Rowan Taylors and Currituck C. Baxter Wyatt, 420 Wiley Ave., Salisbury is of the S.Rowan branch, distant cousins of your branch. He tells me he will lend me a Wyatt History written by a cousin somewhere as soon as he can get it. I'll let you know when I get it; I know he'll let you have it, too, if you have not already read it. It takes them back to Normandy and Wm, the Conqueror. No wonder they like the name Wm. His wife told me of the family castle in Eng. or Scotland/ More later. Thanks again, Mrs. W. D. Taylor, 404 W. Kerr Salisbury, NC

(This is postmarked Aug. 6, 1963)

I am working now when I can find an hour on my husband's mother's people. If you see anything in the Danbury records concerning Benj. Howard, of the set that came here from Md. In the 1750s and 60s, we'll get over there and study same. Also, I'll never stop scanning every record for Geo. Taylor hoping I'll get his ancestry and point of origin. Since you are working on the Wyatts I'll depend on you for that. We hope when the weather cools off to spend a few days in S.E. Va. and N.E. N.C. studying county records of Isle of Wight, Charles City Ce. , Bedford ?? And others. I suspect that by tracing Christopher Stokes whose family is in-terwoven with the Edward Taylor, Sr.s of South Davidson Ce., I may find out more about our Taylors. I find Stokes his will in the Pearson file and must investigate the relationship there. The Kinchens of the Edgecombe, Northampton, and southern Va. are also intermarried with these Taylors and Stokes..so I'm full of plans but too busy to do much investigating right now. After Geo. sold on Giles Mill Cr. in 1808 we can't find him and family in the 1810 census. He could have moved into Stokes, later to Wilkes by 1820. Love, Mrs. Taylor

I finally got around to calling Miss Mae Wyatt yesterday. She says her sister-in-law, Mrs. Curtis (ed. Wyatt), had a stroke in May and is still in the Hospital. If and when you come to visit her, or the Library, I surely want to exchange note with you. Did the original (N.C.) Wyatts settle near Forks Ch. on the Yadkin? She says one of the very early ones is buried in the old Moravian Cemetery in Winston-Salem. I'd like to have the data on the stone if you have it. The Will of the original Wm. (that we know) was dated August 6, 1804; but I think he lived to 1806; the land division took place in 1807 (Bk 20, p6) Wm and Cornelius got the land. I guess the note dated Dec. 19, 1814 was a payment to the other heirs, the girls, from Wm., sometimes spelled Williams. He was living in 1822 when he sold the homeplace to Peter Hairston of Stokes Co. Wonder if that is still a part of the Hairston holdings or who owns it. We would love to visit it. George Taylor who married Unity, aunt of Wm. Walker (ed. Wyatt) lived adj. He went on to Wilkes Co. soon after the division. Have not yet found our his parentage or land of origin. I think he must be a relative of the Lowe (?) Davidson Co. Taylors, Edw. Sr. who was father of Wm. Who married Amy Brock, live near Farmington. Love, Mrs. Tayler
(And in writing- Thanks so very much for all-)

Dear Mrs. Pitts, Thank you so much for your continued interest in me and my problems. So far we know nothing beyond 1791 - 19795 concerning George Taylor but since Wm. Wyatt came from Del. I am hopeful to sometime find a way to research the Del. records. He perhaps came here in the group with his father-in-law-to-be. I called Miss Mae. She is very pleased you are coming. Curtis wife is still in the hospital, almost paralyzed.

She says the grave they found at W-S was near an entrance, was a plain slab, the inscription eligible: "William Wyatt, member of the Church of England" and she says the date was in the 1700s but she does not remember the exact date. She nor Curtis remember the name of the street the entrance was on but I don't suppose there are many entrances and since the date is 17- it is surely in an early section of the place. I hope you can find a way to get that info. for us. I'm looking forward to seeing you. Sincerely, Mrs. Taylor

D.K Shaver, Rt. 2, Albemarle, N.C. who seems to be an U.S. employee, I met in the library. He was saying something about the Biles; I told him I think you are interested in them. He knows Eben, older, also Isaac, Julius, and Amos, seemed to be working on their tree. You could write him. I am presently working on estab. connections between the Samuel Smith, who had a son James, who m Eliz Job, dau of Samuel Job, of Davie, Samuel Bryans Mill Cr. Area. It is thought that these Smiths came via Va. from Md. after the Rev. War. and I am trying to find the connecting link between N.C. and Md. (via Granville, Co, it is thought.) Smiths are so numerous... do you know any thing about this Smith group?

We have never got off to Winston-Salem yet. I have plans but we stay too busy; we have sold this big old apt. house and will move next month into the duplex at 406 West Kerr, just across a narrow strip of lawn. Will have to sell some furniture or give it away. Let me hear fr. you when convenient. Sincerely, Mrs. W.C. Taylor

I have researched very little since early spring. We moved the last wk in May into the duplex next door, sold the big apt. house. Then last wk in June I broke down, internal hem... have had difficulty regaining strength. But I have gone back to L. a few times recently. Saw your name, glad you are still working. Have you found any thing of interest concerning the Wyatt's before they came to N.C. fr. Del.? Do you know which cr. was called Giles Mill Cr. where Wm Settled? I want to study at Salem as soon as I am strong enough, also Danbury. Mama's Elrod's and Soelle's are very interesting. A descendant in Ind. has sent me a lot of info. Will it cost me much to study in Salem Archives? Have you ever found the Wyatt in God's Acre, the one Miss Mae told me of. Let me know if there is anything I can look up for you here. I really think it is good therapy for me at this point.

Thanks again for all the data you have given me. Mrs. W.C. Taylor, 406 West Kerr Street, Salisbury, NC 633-2206, 28144

I have looked thru the Taylor and the Wyatt files several times first and last. I feel sure the Allmon and Maxey Taylor line are part of your Davie Co. – Currituck Co. line There is a Currituck Co. abstract book in the library and I am pretty sure they are in it. I'm shut in with a cold or I'd go get the proof right now. Clyde is having me send an order for one of those Kent Co. Del bks. Hope they are still available. The address is : Goodspeed's Book Shops, Inc., 18 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Order: #3626-Kent Co., Calendar of, Probate Records, 1680 - 1800 by Leon deValinger, Jr. Pub. 1944. Listed at $12.50 in Genealogy Catalogue #520. Do you know Mrs. Van Zimmerman, Rt.10, Box 370, Lexington, NC. (Just north of Welcome, just off Hwy 52) They have a dairy farm. I'm sure you and she are descended from the same Currituck Taylors; she is quite a genealogist herself, possibly 45 - 50 years old. You'll like her. This book from Del. may show the Currituck Taylors are from Kent Co. Del. Call me when you come over. Love, V Church Taylor.

Thanks for your Christmas message. Just reading about your so varied activities makes me dizzy. We retired (finished retiring) in May 1964 and none too soon for me. Clyde's sister from Wyo. Has been with us since Oct., will be leaving soon; then I'll try to take up where I left off. Have neglected my hobby. Gen. Helper (Sept 1965) lists Mrs. S.G. Polson, P.O.Box 8, Helendale, California, 92342. She lists info on Andrew Pitts to exchange. He may be yours. You perhaps know her already. We took Annie to Old Salem. While I studied in Archives they visited restored bldgs., then we searched cemeteries for Wm Wyatt grave Miss May Wyatt saw there once, but failed to find it. Hope you can come over soon. I want your reaction to the Del. Book. Where did your Williams come from? Were they ass'd with the Davie Co. James from Pa.? Miss Clark on phone says she has filmed Hinshaw records (Quaker) also some films of some Pa. County histories. My husband's James seem to have come from Doylestown, Pa. Think that's Buck Co. It will be good to see you. Mrs. Taylor, 406 W. Kerr, Salisbury, NC

THAT'S ALL, FOLKS. I hope this helps someone. CWP
